

GRADE DISTRIBUTION AND ENROLLMENT REPORT FOR ALL GRADES, SPRING 2002

HIGHLIGHTS

- Overall, the proportion of A and B range grades is 71.2 percent of all grades awarded.
- As might be expected, courses at the graduate level have the greatest proportion of A and B range grades (66.2 percent A's and 23.2 percent B's). Four departments awarded 80 percent or more A's in graduate courses: Human Ecology (93.3 percent), Art and Design (86.8 percent), Communication Studies (85.7 percent), and Theatre & Dance (86.2 percent); Sociology awarded the fewest A's at the graduate level, 22.6 percent.
- Undergraduate 100, 200 and 300 level courses show some variation in the percent A and B grades awarded, 63.4 percent, 69.6 percent, and 74.0 percent. As might be anticipated, 400 level courses show a larger percent of superior grades, 83.5 percent.
- University-wide, 4.0 percent of students enrolling received a grade of WD. At the undergraduate level 4.2 percent withdrew from classes and 2.2 percent of graduate students did.
- Overall, 1.8 percent of those enrolled received a grade of Incomplete. At the graduate level this is 5.2 percent and at the undergraduate level it is 1.4 percent. For Basic Skills courses, 7.8 percent of the students enrolled at this level did not complete their courses.

NOTE: For this report + and – grades are combined with the letter grade. Thus, B+ and B- are reported as a B grade.
