

PROGRAM CHANGES, FALL 1997-FALL 2001

CHANGES TO EXISTING PROGRAMS:

- English and Comparative Literature (MA) was renamed English (MA) in the spring of 1999.
- Home Economics (BA, BS, and MA) was renamed Human Ecology (BA, BS, and MA) in the fall of 1998.
- Industrial Technology & Education (BS and MA) was renamed Technology Education (BS and MA) in the fall of 1997.
- Speech and Theatre (BA) was split into Broadcasting (BA), Speech Communication (BA), and Theatre Studies (BA) in the summer of 1999.

DISCONTINUED PROGRAMS:

- Accounting (MS) was discontinued in the spring of 2000.
- Applied Economics (BA and MA) was discontinued in the fall of 1998.
- German (BA) was discontinued in the spring of 1998.

NEW PROGRAMS:

- Accounting (MS) was begun in the fall of 1997.
- Applied Economics (BA and MA) was begun in the fall of 1996.
- The Ed.D. in Pedagogy (Ed.D.) was begun in the summer of 1999.
- Justice Studies (BA) was begun in the fall of 1999.
- Studio Art (MFA) was begun in the fall of 1998.
- Women's Studies (BA) was begun in the fall of 2000.

SOURCE: PROVOST'S OFFICE