Montclair State University

Foreword

The primary purpose of this document is to serve as an official reference guide and a resource manual for strategic planning and assessment at Montclair State University. The 2025-2026 Fact Book represents data from Montclair State University and Bloomfield College of Montclair State University.

The goal is to provide trend data on student enrollment, including demographics, graduation, retention and completion rates, faculty statistics, and library holdings. The data can be used by colleges, departments, and individuals for academic and non-academic assessment, program evaluation, faculty workload analyses, and academic support planning. The data can also be used to support regional and national accreditation, as well as program self-studies, and grant preparation.

The Institutional Fact Book primarily uses fall semester data and is updated annually. We hope that you will find this edition useful for your data needs.

University History

Founded in 1908 as a two-year school dedicated to training teachers, Montclair State has since evolved into a comprehensive University offering more than 300 academic programs at the baccalaureate, master's, and doctoral levels. The university began offering doctoral degrees in 2003, and in 2019, it was designated Carnegie Classification as an R2 research doctoral university by the American Council on Education.

Situated on a 252-acre campus that spans Montclair, Little Falls, and Clifton, New Jersey, Montclair State University has experienced significant growth since 2000. As of Fall 2024, the University comprises 13 colleges and schools and serves a diverse population of more than 23,000 undergraduate and graduate students. Approximately 5,118 students reside on campus, and the institution employs 5,033 faculty and staff. Notable campus developments include the 500-seat Alexander Kasser Theater, the 7,200 square foot George Segal Gallery, a six-level parking deck, a full-service campus diner, a student recreation center, the 270,000 square foot University Hall, the 848-bed Village at Little Falls residential complex, and The Heights, a 588,000 square foot residential and dining facility.

On August 2, 2021, Jonathan G.S. Koppell became the ninth president of Montclair State University. Under his leadership, the university continues to advance its mission as a premier public research institution committed to access, academic excellence, and service to the community. His signature accomplishments include four years of record enrollment growth and an increasing impact on the surrounding communities, including an innovative partnership with the City of Paterson, community leaders and philanthropists that is producing opportunities for students and city residents.

Montclair State proudly reflects the rich diversity of its surrounding communities. It is federally designated as a Hispanic-Serving Institution (HSI), a distinction awarded to colleges and universities where Hispanic students represent at least 25 percent of the full-time student population. The university's minority-majority status underscores its role as a model of inclusive excellence in public higher education.

The State of New Jersey formalized the union of Montclair and Bloomfield College in July 2023. This completed a historic merger between a public research university and a private liberal arts college. Bloomfield is the only four-year institution in New Jersey that has been designated as a Predominantly Black Institution, a Hispanic-Serving Institution and a Minority Serving Institution. As a result, Bloomfield's important mission has continued, and its students are able to complete their education without interruption while benefiting from Montclair's lower tuition and fees and the support of the second largest public research university in New Jersey. This partnership between two Essex County institutions is regarded as a national model.

The university's academic units span a broad range of disciplines. The Feliciano School of Business includes departments such as Accounting and Finance, Hospitality and Tourism, Information Management and Business Analytics, Economics, Management, and Marketing. The College of the Arts houses the departments of Art and Design, Theatre and Dance, the John J. Cali School of Music, and the School of Communication and Media. The College of Humanities and Social Sciences offers programs across 17 departments, along with interdisciplinary offerings such as African American Studies, Asian Studies, and International Studies. The College of Science and Mathematics features departments in Biology, Chemistry and Biochemistry, Computer Science, Earth and Environmental Studies, Marine Biology and Coastal Sciences, Mathematics, and Physics and Astronomy. In 2023, the School of Computing was established within this college.

The former College of Education and Human Services was restructured into two distinct entities in 2023: the College for Education and Engaged Learning and the College for Community Health. The School of Nursing, founded in 2016, offers Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) and Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) programs. The Graduate School oversees nearly 100 graduate programs, including master's degrees, doctoral degrees, certificates, and certification programs. University College, established in 2018, provides targeted support for students who have not yet declared a major. On July 1, 2023, Bloomfield College officially became Bloomfield College of Montclair State University, further expanding access to affordable, high-quality education.

Montclair State University is home to a diverse and dynamic array of research centers, institutes, and specialized facilities that drive innovation, scholarship, and community engagement. Among its distinguished entities are the Margaret and Herman Sokol Institute for Pharmaceutical Life Sciences, the Feliciano Center for Entrepreneurship, the Center of Pedagogy, the McCormick Center for Child Advocacy and Policy, the Center for Cooperative Media, the Clean Energy and Sustainability Analytics Center, and the New Jersey Center for Water Science and Technology. In addition, the University supports numerous academic and student-focused centers, including the ADP Center for Teacher Preparation, the Center for Autism and Early Childhood Mental Health, the Center for Heritage and Archaeological Studies, the Center for Writing Excellence, among others. Through these centers and initiatives, Montclair State University continues to advance its mission as a leading public research university, dedicated to broad access, academic excellence, and meaningful service to the community.

50th percentile (median)	The score at which 50 percent of students submitting test scores to an institution scored above and 50 percent scored below (i.e., midpoint of the test score distribution).
75th percentile	The score above which 25 percent of students submitting test scores to an institution scored.
Academic program	An instructional program leading toward an associate's, bachelor's, master's, doctor's, or resulting in credits that can be applied to one of these degrees.
Academic year	The period of time generally extending from September to June; usually equated to 2 semesters or trimesters, 3 quarters, or the period covered by a 4-1-4 calendar system.
Accrediting agencies	Organizations (or bodies) that establish operating standards for educational or professional institutions and programs, determine the extent to which the standards are met, and publicly announce their findings.
Adjunct instructional staff	Non-tenure track instructional staff serving in a temporary or auxiliary capacity to teach specific courses on a course-by-course basis. Includes both instructional staff who are hired to teach an academic degree-credit course and those hired to teach a developmental or ESL course; whether the latter three categories earn college credit is immaterial. Excludes regular part-time instructional staff (who, unlike adjuncts are not paid on a course-by-course basis), graduate assistants, full-time professional staff of the institution who may teach individual courses (such as a dean or academic advisor), and appointees who teach noncredit courses exclusively.
Admitted students	Applicants that have been granted an official offer to enroll in a postsecondary institution.
American Indian or Alaska Native	A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment.

Bachelor's degree	An award (baccalaureate or equivalent degree, as determined by the Secretary, U.S. Department of Education) that normally requires at least 4 but not more than 5 years of full-time equivalent college-level work. This includes all bachelor's degrees conferred in a 5-year cooperative (work-study) program. A cooperative plan provides for alternate class attendance and employment in business, industry, or government; thus, it allows students to combine actual work experience with their college studies. Also includes bachelor's degrees in which the normal 4 years of work are completed in 3 years.
Black or African American	A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa.
Calculation of FTE students (using fall student headcounts)	The number of FTE students is calculated based on fall student headcounts as reported by the institution on the IPEDS Enrollment (EF) component (Part A). The full-time equivalent (headcount) of the institution's part-time enrollment is estimated by multiplying the factors noted below times the part-time headcount. These are then added to the full-time enrollment headcounts to obtain an FTE for all students enrolled in the fall. This formula is used to produce an FTE that is used annually in the Digest of Education Statistics. Part-time undergraduate enrollment: Public 4-year (.403543), Private (not-for-profit and for-profit) 4-year (.392857), Public 2-year (.335737), All other institutions (.397058). Part-time graduate enrollment: Public 4-year (.361702), Private (not-for-profit and for-profit) 4-year (.382059).

CIP code	A six-digit code in the form xx.xxxx that identifies instructional program specialties within educational institutions.
Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP)	A taxonomic coding scheme for secondary and postsecondary instructional programs. It is intended to facilitate the organization, collection, and reporting of program data using classifications that capture the majority of reportable data. The CIP is the accepted federal government statistical standard on instructional program classifications and is used in a variety of education information surveys and databases.
Cohort	A specific group of students established for tracking purposes.
Cohort year	The year that a cohort of students begins attending college.
Completer	A student who receives a degree, diploma, certificate, or other recognized postsecondary credential. In order to be considered a completer, the degree/award must actually be conferred.

Completers within 150% of normal time	Students who completed their program within 150% of the normal (or expected) time for completion.
Completions (C)	This annual component of IPEDS collects number of degrees and other recognized postsecondary credentials (certificates) conferred. These data are reported by level (associate's, bachelor's, master's, and doctor's), as well as by length of program for some. Both are reported by race/ethnicity and gender of recipient, and the field of study, using the Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code. Institutions report all degrees and other awards conferred during an entire reporting period, from July 1 of one calendar year through June 30 of the following year. Completions data by race/ethnicity at the 2-digit CIP level became an annual collection in 1990; since the 1995 collection, race/ethnicity is collected at the 6-digit CIP level. In 2001, IPEDS began collecting completers of double majors by level, 6-digit CIP code, and by race/ethnicity and gender of recipient.

It is applied toward the total number of credit hours needed for completing the requirements of a degree, diploma, certificate, or other recognized postsecondary credential.
Credit hour activity	The provision of coursework to students which can be measured in terms of credit hours.
Degree	An award conferred by a college, university, or other postsecondary education institution as official recognition for the successful completion of a program of studies.
Degree/certificate-seeking students (DCGS)	Students enrolled in courses for credit who are seeking a degree, certificate, or other recognized postsecondary credential. This includes students who: received any type of federal financial aid, regardless of what courses they took at any time; received any state or locally based financial aid with an eligibility requirement that the student be enrolled in a degree, certificate, or transfer-seeking program; or obtained a student visa to study at a U.S. postsecondary institution. High school students also enrolled in postsecondary courses for credit are not considered degree/certificate-seeking.
Distance education	Education that uses one or more technologies to deliver instruction to students who are separated from the instructor and to support regular and substantive interaction between the students and the instructor synchronously or asynchronously. Technologies used for instruction may include the following: Internet; one-way and two-way transmissions through open broadcasts, closed circuit, cable, microwave, broadband lines, fiber optics, satellite or wireless communication devices; audio conferencing; and video cassette, DVDs, and CD-ROMs, if the cassette, DVDs, and CD-ROMs are used in a course in conjunction with the technologies listed above.

Student performance is recorded on a college transcript and postsecondary credit is awarded for a passing grade in the course. Includes: All postsecondary courses, independent of course delivery mode, course location, course instructor, whether secondary credit is also offered, and whether the student enrolls through a formal state/local program or enrolls outside a formal state/local program. Excludes: Credit-by-exam models such as Advanced Placement and International Baccalaureate in which the student is not enrolled in a postsecondary institution.
Entering students (undergraduate)	Students at the undergraduate level, both full-time and part-time, enrolled at the institution for the first time during the IPEDS enrollment reporting period (e.g., fall term or preceding summer session for Fall Enrollment survey component). This includes all degree/certificate-seeking first-time students, degree/certificate-seeking transfer-in students, and non-degree/non-certificate-seeking students new to the institution (not including high school students).
Exclusions	Those students who may be removed (deleted) from a cohort (or subcohort). For the Graduation Rates, Outcome Measures, and Fall Enrollment retention rate reporting, students may be removed from a cohort if they left the institution for one of the following reasons: death or total and permanent disability; service in the armed forces (including those called to active duty); service with a foreign aid service of the federal government, such as the Peace Corps; or service on official church missions.

For example, a newly appointed president of an institution may also be appointed as a faculty member. Graduate, instruction, and research assistants are not included in this category.
Faculty Status	A status designated by the institution according to the institution's policies. 'Faculty' may include staff with academic appointments (instruction, research, public service) and other staff members who are appointed as faculty members. The designation 'faculty' is separate from the activities to which the staff members are currently assigned. For example, a president, provost, or librarian may also be appointed as a faculty member. For IPEDS reporting, graduate assistants do not have faculty status.
Fall cohort	The group of students entering in the fall term established for tracking purposes. For the Graduation Rates component, this includes all students who enter an institution as full-time, first-time degree or certificate-seeking undergraduate students during the fall term of a given year.
Fall Enrollment (EF)	This annual component of IPEDS collects data on the number of students enrolled in the fall at postsecondary institutions. Students reported are those enrolled in courses creditable toward a degree or other recognized postsecondary credential; students enrolled in courses that are part of a vocational or occupational program, including those enrolled in off-campus or extension centers; and high school students taking college courses for credit. Institutions report annually the number of full- and part-time students, by gender, race/ethnicity, and level (undergraduate and graduate, including doctor's and professional practice students); the total number of full- and part-time undergraduate degree/certificate-seeking students (first-time entering, transfer-ins, and continuing/returning) and full- and part-time undergraduate non-degree/non-certificate students); and retention rates. In even-numbered years, data are collected for state of residence of first-time students and for the number of those students who graduated from high school or received high school equivalent certificates in the past 12 months. Also in even-numbered years, 4-year institutions are required to provide enrollment data by gender, race/ethnicity, and level for selected fields of study. In odd-numbered years, data are collected for enrollment by age category by student level and gender.

Full-time equivalent (FTE) of students	The full-time equivalent (FTE) of students is a single value providing a meaningful combination of full-time and part-time students. IPEDS data products currently have two calculations of FTE students, one using fall student headcounts and the other using 12-month instructional activity.

Graduate: A student enrolled for 9 or more semester credits, or 9 or more quarter credits, or a student involved in thesis or dissertation preparation that is considered full-time by the institution. Doctor's degree - Professional practice - full-time as defined by the institution.
Graduate student	A student who holds a bachelor's degree or above and is taking courses at the postbaccalaureate level. These students may or may not be enrolled in graduate programs.

Graduation Rates (GR)	This annual component of IPEDS was added in 1997 to help institutions satisfy the requirements of the Student Right-to-Know legislation. Data are collected on the number of students entering the institution as full-time, first-time, degree/certificate-seeking undergraduate students in a particular year (cohort), by race/ethnicity and gender; the number completing their program within 150 percent of normal time to completion; the number that transfer to other institutions if transfer is part of the institution's mission. Prior to 2007, institutions who offered athletically-related student aid were asked to report, by sport, the number of students receiving aid and whether they completed within 150 percent of normal time to completion. Now, these institutions only need to report a URL where the athletic data is located on their website, when available. GR automatically generates worksheets that calculate rates, including average rates over 4 years.

For the GR component of IPEDS, the initial cohort is only for full-time, first-time students.
